

Since my first visit to upstate New York, with its rolling hills, lakes, streams and wildlife amazingly similar to my birthplace in China, I have envisioned creating an authentic Shaolin Temple that captures the essence of the original Shaolin Temple in China and embraces the unique vitality and diversity of New York. Please join me as we build a new Temple and a new life for ourselves and the world. Amitabha.

— Sifu Shi Yan Ming
Founder/Abbot, USA Shaolin Temple

Many people are drawn to the USA Shaolin Temple by the allure of learning legendary Shaolin martial arts from a true master. We stay because of Sifu's dynamic spirit, his Chan Buddhist message of mutual respect and understanding and the diverse and welcoming community the Temple offers. As a result, we are quickly outgrowing our existing leased space in Manhattan.

We have launched a capital campaign to raise the funds we need to build a new Temple in upstate New York while maintaining a presence in Manhattan. The new Temple will allow our community to grow by offering more classes, providing room and board, hosting summits and other special events, running corporate retreats and other team building programs, and expanding our outreach to give more young people from economically disadvantaged backgrounds an opportunity to train.

Once the Temple has room to grow, Sifu will be able to share the teachings of Shaolin with anyone who is willing to train hard and learn. In this way, the Temple will preserve the Shaolin legacy and spread its universal message: Strengthen your mind and body, understand yourself so that you can understand others, and help yourself so that you can help others.

During this historic time, we need the support of everyone who recognizes the Temple's power to promote peace and harmony throughout the world by encouraging people to use their individual and collective chi (energy) in productive ways in all aspects of their lives. We thank you for contributing what you can.

The Temple is a place where I, like so many others, have found compassion, happiness and inspiration. It is a place that asks only that you give your best to receive the best everyone else has to offer.

– Gay Haubner, Writer and Temple Student

I am so happy to train with people from such diverse racial, cultural, religious and economic backgrounds. I am struck by the seriousness of many of the students and the way they support each other. It is clear Sifu embodies and communicates an ancient tradition, a depth of power and brightness that everyone, in their unique identity, feels and shares.

– Ellen Hwalan, Artist, Yoga Instructor and Temple Student

When I think back on the person I was before I came to the Temple, I am amazed by how greatly I have changed. I could never be the way I was. It seems I am no longer capable of being lazy.

– Joe Simonsen, College Student and Temple Disciple
